BEN BUTLER'S BAZOO

He Fears the Domination of the South in National Affairs

Corr Philadelphia Times

PHILADELPHIA, June 11 - General B F. Butler yesterday expressed himself at some length on the general political outlook He branded civil service as a sham, and thought the Democrats in Congress showed a lamentable want of cohesion Taking what he called a long range of things, he expressed the idea that the great preponderance of the South in the national councils would eventually produce discord again, but just when, no man could say He referred especially to the fact that while the South pays but one-fifth of the taxes she dominates the Presidency, the Lower House, and will soon secure the Senate—all on a system of representation based on a negro vote. Trouble will some day come, he believes when the South tries to use its power to coerce the North into payment of Southern losses during the war The contest may not be of the sword, but will certainly be a business one based on taxation

TUESDAY.....JUNE 22, 1886.

A COLD DAY.

Resolutions Recommending the Ousting of Republican Officials in Nevada.

The following resolutions recommending President Cleveland to inquire into the cause of offensive Republican partisans retaining lucrative Federal offices in Nevada were adopted by the Democratic State Central Committee in session at Reno, June 16th:

We, the Democratic State Central Committee of Nevada, recognizing the time-honored traditions of the party to enforce and redeem as pledges of the people, and expressing our utmost confidence and esteem in the patriotism and devotion to Democratic principles of our worthy Executive Grover Cleveland, do enunciate the following declaration of principles:

First—While we are in favor of a rigid and vigorous enforcement of the laws relating to Civil Service reform in accordance with the views of the President of the United States, we are also cognizant of the fact that many of the Federal offices in this State are now filled by members of the Republican party who have forfeited the right to the positions they now hold by violating every condition of Civil Service rules, and their continuance in power is not only demoralizing to the Democratic party but a menace to the public service.

Second—We further declare that the best interests of the party demand a rigid investigation by the appointing power into the causes which for the past fifteen months have combined to render the places of these Republican office-holders secure against the most earnest and persistent protests from the prominent Democrats of the State; and we recommend that such officers be speedily removed, to the end that the machinery of the Government may not again be prostituted for the purpose of perpetuating the dynasty of the Republican party.

Third—We recognize in the ranks of the Democratic party of this State many true and worthy citizens who have ever been loyal and zealous in the promulgation of the principles of Democracy; that none have superior claims to those of our worthy Chairman, Hon. J. C. Hagerman, who for the past twenty years as a resident of this State has been in the front ranks carrying the Democratic banner, and yielding his time and money a willing offering to the cause. And we therefore recommend him to the favorable consideration of the President of the United States as worthy of any position within the gift of His Excellency in the State of Nevada.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted and the Secretary ordered to send a copy of the same to His Excellency, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, and Hon. J. G. Fair, Senator from Nevada.

WHEN WILL CONGRESS ADJOURN?

The Latter part of July Fixed Upon as a Likely Date.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Tribune's Washington special of the 18th says: Randall thinks the session may end by July 15th and Morrison is of the same opinion, provided the House should refuse to consider the Tariff bill. Many members of the House who are interested in the fate of measures besides the Tariff and Appropriation bills insist that Congress cannot adjourn before August 1st and some fix the date two weeks later. Those who have paid heed to the disposition and temper of the House, as well as to the condition of its calendar, are of the opinion that the session will close about July 24th and that few public measures will pass both houses, aside from the general appropriation bills.

The 9th day of September, 1886, will be a cold day——for some aspirants for Democratic political favors.—Elko Independent.

The 2d of November will be much colder for all the Democratic aspirants.

Judge David Davis, ex-Senator and President pro tem, is dying at his home in Indianapolis.

Senator Fair will "stand in" for reelection to the Senate from Nevada, and like the cool wind which precedes a storm to the denizens of a drought stricken country comes this intimation to the voters of the sagebrush State and that the strings of "Shippery Jim's" sack are to be unloosened.—Yolo Mail.

COUNTY ASSESSORS.

A Nut for the Commissioners to Crack at the Calling of the Next General Election.

The Eureka Sentinel asks:

Will the Assessors elected this Fall serve for a term of two or four years? The Act of 1866, in relation to the election of county officers, provides that an Assessor shall be chosen by the electors of the respective counties at the general election in the year 1866 and at the general election every two years thereafter. But the Act of 1883 provides that there shall be elected at the general election in 1886 and every four years thereafter in each organized county of this State one County Assessor. The decision of the Supreme Court of this State on what is known as the "Wallace bill" rendered at the July term of 1884, declares that Section 2 of the Act of 1883, in-so-far as it extends the terms of the then incumbent Assessors was unconstitutional and void, and, in concluding, says: "Section 1 provides for an election in 1886, and every four years thereafter, but it does not supercede the existing law during the next two years, (1885 and 1886). It was not intended to go into effect during that time. It follows that County Assessors must be elected at the ensuing general election (1884) under the statute of 1866 for the two years succeeding the terms of the present incumbents." The question, therefore, is: Does not the later statute of 1883, providing for a four-years' term of County Assessors, supercede the Act of 1866, providing for a two-years' term? The case on the Wallace bill—to-wit, State ex rel J. V. B. Perry vs. Wm. Arrington et al. 18th Nevada, 412—determines nothing except that the extension of the time of the Assessor already elected was void, but does not determine anything concerning the constitutionality or effect of Section 1 of the Act of 1883, extending the time from two to four years after 1886.

BLAINE AND LOGAN.

The People of the West In Favor of the Old Ticket.

NEW YORK, June 19.—[Special]—Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, is at the Fifth-avenue Hotel. When asked about the outlook for 1888, he said: "The West is solid and unanimous for Blaine, and will be until the convention meets. It is not a sporadic sentiment, but it is epidemic among the people and the mass of voters who recognize Blaine's ability and statesmanship. The old ticket is echoed on the street corners, in the shops, among the farmers and, indeed, wherever you go, and there are Republican voters outside New York State. I can speak positively when I say Blaine will have a solid delegation from every State. It will be a display of enthusiasm that has not been witnessed in a great many years. If New York sends a delegation for him there will be no ballot whatever, but a nomination will be made unanimous by a rising vote like Grant in 1868."

Democratic Loss of Opportunity.

The Philadelphia Press says editorially: The Democratic party leaders have again lost their opportunity and shown their inability to reform the tariff. It must be done by the Republicans when it is done. The Republicans will go before the people this Fall with the Morrison bill pending. The issue with the people will be: Do you want this sort of a tariff bill which destroys certain agricultural interests and revises no defects of the law, or do you want the law carefully corrected with fairness to all interests. After having repeatedly failed, are the people likely to trust the Democratic party again?

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-swf-1yr

THE SHEEP NUISANCE.

Sierra Valley Leader.

Deputy Assessor and Constable Danforth went to the Little Truckee bridge on Friday last to collect the new tax, according to a recent county ordinance, on 4,000 head of sheep about to come into the county. The ordinance requires that all sheep not owned in the county shall pay a tax of five cents each to the county. The "gall" of those country sheep men is without limit. They bring up their sheep to eat up the pasture that our own ranchers need, and destroy our roads by filling them with stones and debris from the hill sides, and are not even willing to repair the roads they destroy, which the mountain counties have to expend large amounts of money in repairing. They destroy the feed and the public highway without paying one cent either directly or indirectly into the County Treasury. They make a fuss because we wish to work our mines, and injure us in that way, and then come up here and eat up our feed. Our people are getting tired of it and thus the recent county ordinance. The lower country sheep men are detrimental and injurious in every way to the people of the mountains. How long our people will stand the imposition is only a question. There are laws that are higher than written laws, and our people would be justified in executing them if our legislators cannot make laws for their protection. When our monopolists want to disobey the written law, they always find a way to do it, and are doing it every day. Our mountain citizens are as law abiding as any in the State, and if the county ordinance will not give them relief from the sheep nuisance, or save the pasturage they actually need themselves, native laws may be necessary for self protection, until effectual laws and ordinances can be passed. We advise the lower country sheep men to either locate their sheep ranges, and fence them, or keep out. The sharp trick of locating a quarter section or less, and thus claim a county residence, and eat up five to fifteen whole sections is getting stale, and there is no justice in it. It would be wise if our valley ranchers would organize an Anti-Trespass League for self protection as our valley is all fenced up and the mountain ranges surrounding this valley of a right belong to them for grazing and are needed by them.

SYNOPSIS—At the Fairy revelry, a Fay is accused of kissing a mortal maiden, and thus breaking his vestal vow. On account of the maiden's purity, his sentence is mitigated. The Queen commands him in expiation, first, to catch a drop of water from beneath the arch of the sturgeon as it leaps from the river; second, to relight his fairy lamp by a spark from a shooting star. Opposed by the Water Sprites, but aided by the Nymphs, he succeeds in the first quest. The second is more perilous. He is tempted by the Sylphs to abandon it, and dwell with them. Refusing to do this, he, by their charms, escapes the dangerous elements, catches the falling spark, and is restored to Fairy favor.
